Our building surveyors manage several projects at any one time, in a variety of different sectors ranging from a local primary school extension, to a medieval fortress, to a prison building to a recording studio – pretty much anything property related across the public and private sector. Our services include party wall, dilapidations, technical due diligence, surveys, landlord and tenant relations and compliance.

Our scope is unlimited, as is our potential. We're one of the leading providers of building surveying services within the UK, our national team will support you throughout your placement and beyond.
