

In the company of...

SOLVERS

Building Services Engineer – Level 6

The entry requirements for the learning provider for this course are as follows:

GCSE: Grade C/4 or above in English and Mathematics

AND

UCAS points: 96 – 128

UCAS points should come from one of the following:

Apprenticeships: Building Services Engineering Technician level 3 apprenticeship DD (UCAS points: 96) alongside grade Pass or Distinction at EPA

A-Levels: 112 UCAS points, typical grades BBC. Must include Mathematics.

BTEC Diplomas: BTEC Level 3 Extended Diploma DDM in an Engineering subject area, with a minimum of merit in Mathematics and Further Mathematics. (UCAS points: 128)

BTEC Level 3 National Diploma D*D* in an Engineering subject area, with a minimum of merit in Mathematics and Further Mathematics. (UCAS points: 112)

Equivalent qualifications may be considered on a case-by-case basis.