

For the London provider:

We will consider a range of alternative Level 3 qualifications such as an Access Course which has been passed with 96 to 120 UCAS points.

Applications from those that have undertaken a relevant foundation year will also be considered.